

DREADFUL REPORT IS TRUE ALL MASSACRED AT PEKING

British Government Has Officially Confirmed the Story.

CONGER AND AMERICANS AMONG DEAD

Official Report That This Bloody Work is Going on All Over China and There is No Hope That Any Foreigners Will Come Out Alive—Powers Give Japan Authority to Send in an Army to Suppress the Rebellion—Great Anxiety in London and Washington.

Shanghai, July 7.—[Special Cablegram]—One hundred and eighty thousand Chinese troops are marching on Nanking. Terrible slaughter is expected according to news received from many points. It appears that millions of Chinese are preparing to meet the foreign forces of invasion. Affairs are beginning to look hopeless to the Europeans.

Shanghai, July 7.—[Special Cablegram]—The British Consul here officially says that all the ministers and the foreigners were massacred at Peking. The Russo-Chinese bank received a confirmation report of the burning of the British legation and all its occupants.

The consul adds that there is no question but that all the foreigners were decimated in the bloody butchery, including Minister Conger and the American residents and missionaries.

He also says that this murderous work is going on all over the interior of China and doubts whether any foreigner will get out alive.

He urges immediate relief by the sending of a large army.

Admits They Are All Dead

Shanghai, July 7.—[Special Cablegram]—Prince Tuan has ordered Gov. Quan of Shikhi to advance with a full force of twenty thousand drilled and armed Chinese from Chinanfoo to capture Nankin from the Viceroy Liu Kung II who favors the foreigners.

Prince Ching admits that there are no legations and no foreigners now at Peking.

It is stated that four thousand leading Chinese have been butchered for petitioning for the lives of the dead foreigners in Peking.

The latest Peking reports say that two thousand Chinese troops were killed, including many Boxer leaders, during the attack upon and destruction of the foreign legations.

To Send 19,000 Troops.

Yokohama, July 7.—[Special Cablegram]—The British government has decided to dispatch nineteen thousand troops to China forthwith.

Outbreak is Extending.

London, July 7.—This has been a day of excitement, tension and activity in the British foreign office. When the cabinet assembled this morning on Lord Salisbury's call, before it lay a cablegram from her majesty's consul at Shanghai, to the effect that the outbreak in China was extending and stating that the allied troops suffered reverses in the north which the whole of the empire would speedily become involved in an insurrectionary anarchy.

Slaughter of 10,000 in Peking.

Meanwhile, tales of stupendous slaughter in Peking follow one another in quick succession. It is now asserted that not alone the Europeans and the Americans, but 10,000 native Christians as well have been massacred in the Imperial city.

Savage Chinese soldiery, it is said, butchered 5,000 native Roman Catholic converts and Shanghai reports rumors of executions by mobs in the streets of Peking of isolated foreigners and European soldiers whom they had captured.

Bodies Hacked to Pieces.

Victims were tortured mercilessly before being put to death and after death their bodies were hacked to pieces.

Prince Tuan, whose command is supreme, has issued new orders for the extermination of all foreigners in the empire.

Russia Will Assist Japan.

The Russian government announces that it will give Japan a free hand to apply military force in China. The terms of this consent are summarized in a dispatch from St. Petersburg, under date of July 6. In reply to an inquiry from the Japanese cabinet regarding the dispatch of Japanese troops to China to render aid to foreigners in Peking, the Russian government declared May 27 that it left the Japanese government full liberty of action in this connection, as the Tokio cabinet expressed its readiness to act in full agreement with other powers. It is in consequence of this, no doubt, that Japan is preparing to embark 20,000 more troops. Political considerations that were thought to have been numbing the action of the powers are thus laid aside, for a moment at least, by the government supposed to have the clearest purposes respecting China's future. Japan's sending of troops now can have little bearing on the fate of the foreigners in Peking.

Horrors at Peking Detailed.

Details of further horrors in Peking are gathered by correspondents at Shanghai from Chinese sources, especially of the slaughter in the Chinese and Tartar city of thousands of native Christians. The capital reeks with carnage. The ruthless thirst for blood is spreading in all the northern provinces, and wherever there are native Christians the scenes enacted in the capital are reproduced in miniature. From these provinces nothing further comes regarding the legation forces except a repetition that they are all dead. The correspondents aver that if the Chinese officials in Shanghai wished to throw light on the real state of affairs in the capital they could do so, and, therefore, the worst reports are accepted as true.

Country Full of Corpses.

Trustworthy news is received to the effect that all the country to the northeast of Peking is covered with the corpses of men and horses of the western garrisons. Fighting of a desperate character took place in the immediate neighborhood of Tien-Tsin June 30. Taku dispatches say an attack in great force is expected at any moment. The Chinese commanders are awaiting the arrival of more guns and reinforcements before making an effort to retake the city. A dispatch from Shanghai to the Daily Telegraph, dated July 5, says the losses of the allies up to June 29 totaled 600.

Edicts by Li Hung Chang.

According to the Daily Telegraph's correspondent, in a dispatch dated Thursday, United States Consul McWade has great influence with Li Hung Chang and has persuaded him to issue a proclamation containing detailed instructions to prefects, sub-prefects and magistrates. It orders them to detect, behead and otherwise severely punish "boxers." These officials, the proclamation says, will be held responsible for the safety of the missionaries and native Christians. The governors of two Quangs join in this proclamation.

English the First of Languages.

Writing on the decline of the French language, Jean Finot points out that at the end of the last century French was the language spoken by the greatest number of civilized people, whereas now it stands fourth. English is spoken by 116,000,000, Russian by 85,000,000, German by 80,000,000, and French by 58,000,000.

The Vanity of Man.

The vanity of man is so amazing that when he is past arrogating to himself the attention which is necessary to him as his daily bread he is capable of so demeaning his manhood as to excite interest in his weakness, rather than that he should cease to be the object of any interest whatever.—F. Marion Crawford.

Have Many Ribs.

Snakes have the greatest number of ribs. The boa or python has no fewer than 320 pairs. The rattlesnake has 171 pairs. The python or boa sometimes attains to an enormous size, and has been reported as reaching the length of 30 feet. The shark has 95 pairs of ribs, and the conger eel 60. The choloques or two-toed sloth has 46 ribs—23 on each side—as against the 24 ribs of man.

MR. ADLAI EWING STEVENSON

Brief Biography of Democratic Vice Presidential Candidate

Bloomington, Ill., July 7.—Adlai Ewing Stevenson, again the democratic nominee for vice president, was born in Christian county, Kentucky, Oct. 23, 1835. In 1852 he removed to this city with his parents. Here he attended the public schools. His education was finished at Center College, Danville, Ky., and at the Illinois Wesleyan University. He studied law and was admitted to the bar in 1857. In 1864 he was chosen prosecuting attorney for the twenty-third judicial district. He was elected to congress as a currency reformer in 1874, and was re-elected to the forty-sixth congress. He served as First Assistant Postmaster General during Mr. Cleveland's first term, and was elected vice president of the United States in 1892. He is a man of affairs, and also an excellent campaigner. As presiding officer of the United States senate he gained the friendship of all the members irrespective of party.

Col. Pettit Not Guilty

Manila, July 7.—[Special Cablegram]—The court martial acquitted Col. Pettit charged with turning over Philippine prisoners to the president of a Filipino village who had them shot.

STEVENSON DID NOT PLEASE BRYAN

The Silver Leader Wanted Towne to Get the Nomination For Vice President.

Lincoln, Neb., July 7.—It was the opinion of Mr. Bryan's visitors yesterday afternoon that he was much disappointed by the nomination of Stevenson. Mr. Bryan said nothing to denote anything but pleasure, but behind all this it was apparent that the naming of Stevenson had much the same effect on Mr. Bryan as if someone had put an icicle down his back. He lost his airiness and his laughing tones and was decidedly serious after the bulletin was received telling of the choice of the convention of his running mate.

Plans of Gold Democrats

Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—The indication now is that the national gold democratic committee, when it meets in this city on July 25, will decide that a national ticket shall be put in the field. The conference was called to meet after the Kansas City convention, with a view of taking action looking to a national ticket in case the democratic convention should adopt a 16 to 1 plank.

MR. BRYAN FEELS CONFIDENT

Will Not Concede One State to the Republicans.

Lincoln, July 7.—[Special Telegram]—The Montana was the first state delegation to greet Bryan. At 1:40 this morning they called enroute home. Bryan was dressed and made a short speech from the porch saying he would not concede one state to the republicans.

The Jacksonville club of Omaha, called on Bryan at four o'clock this morning. A large number of delegates from Illinois and other states are coming Sunday. Telegrams pour in congratulating Bryan, among which was one from Mrs. R. B. Bland. The national committee accompanied by leading democrats will call on Bryan Monday to discuss plans for the campaign. The returned Nebraskans are disappointed over Towne's showing, but Bryan consoled them with words of comfort, though some hint that he is not satisfied with Stevenson.

"Acquiring" Mounts.

This tale is told concerning the ethics of bushmen in respect of horseflesh. A discussion was going on in a Melbourne club on the wisdom of sending a corps of bushmen to the front. One of the company, evidently a sufferer, clinched the discussion by observing: "There are a few up our way I should like the government to get hold of. Let them loose in the Transvaal frontier and Paul Kruger wouldn't have a horse to his name in a week. I know 'em." Lifting is often the only way of getting a mount.—New York Press.

Towne Agent Sells Liquor.

Vermont has a law prohibiting the sale of liquor in any town unless the citizens vote for it, and then it must be dispensed by a town agent for medicinal purposes or use in the arts. Northfield, a town of 3,000, has had such an agency, and its receipts have been so large that the temperance people have had a law passed requiring the publication of purchasers' names.

ONLY SEASONED TIMBER WANTED

Democrats Had No Use for Towne and Others Like Him.

HILL WAS FAR-SEEING

Knew That Croker Meant to Knife Him if He Got the Chance.

HAVE NO HOPE OF SUCCESS

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—It is all over. Mr. Bryan's troupe of performing delegates has closed its season and the Democratic national convention of 1900 is at an end.

It didn't adjourn. It simply quit after handing "Uncle" Adlai Stevenson a somewhat faded bouquet, which David Bennett Hill of New York had previously declined to wear in his buttonhole.

The closing session was marked by a continuous flow of oratory and of peroration. The bad little free silver and populist boys, whom the democratic party was thinking of adopting into its family, were allowed to sit on the stage and to speak their little pieces, but they failed to get the vice presidential nomination or any other official recognition.

Only Seasoned Democrats Wanted

Good, old fashioned Bourbons from "Jaw jaw" and the other states where the boys memorize the democratic national platform before they study the catechism, refused to sit by and allow any of the offices to be handed over to the new party recruits, whose democracy was not yet dry behind the ears.

"Ah come from a state, sah," bellowed one of the Southern orators, "which gives two hundred democratic majority, no matter what the platform is or who the candidates are. But ah! tell you one thing, we want to be a democratic platform and we've got to have democratic candidates."

"We do most of the cooking for the democratic party and we don't eat any of the pie, but we are not going to have any second hand, shop worn republican on our national ticket."

So when the vote was taken Towne, the free silver idol, was down among the "also rans," along with a certain John Smith of Maryland and the other favorite sons who like to see their names in the paper occasionally.

Bryan Does Not Appear.

"Our venerated leader" staid at home at Lincoln. Everything had been arranged to bring him across the state into Kansas City on a special train, with the idea of throwing the convention into convulsions of enthusiasm which would lead the delegates to tear up the convention hall by the roots and take the bricks home with them as souvenirs. But Chairman Jones got busy on the long distance telephone wire late last night and told "William Bray Jennings" as Webb Davis puts it, that the delegates were tired and hot and that he feared even the presence of "our peerless leader" in the flesh would fail to arouse them to more than a temporary outburst of enthusiasm.

Lone Iceberg in the Ocean.

The one thing that stuck up in the monotony of yesterday's session like a rock in a muddy stream was David B. Hill. Hill was practically offered the nomination for the vice presidency and would have taken it even though it came on a silver platter but for the fact that Old Dick Croker had his "Corcoran pointed" ready to sink deep into his tender flesh. Hill got up and declined the honor in so many words. Even then it was almost thrust upon him. Fear of Tammany's treachery made Hill decline and the same fear kept the convention from pressing him into service.

And so the democracy, looking around for a vice presidential candidate who was not particular about what was in the platform and who was quite willing to play a soft and low accompaniment to Mr. Bryan's solo, fixed upon "Uncle" Adlai as a nice, agreeable old man who would hurt nobody's feelings and whose democracy is blown in the bottle.

Arouses Negative Enthusiasm

The announcement of "Uncle" Adlai's nomination aroused the same amount and kind of enthusiasm as is displayed in a primary schoolroom when the teacher says that it is time for recess.

Everybody got up as quickly as possible and started out of the hall. The people were enthusiastic enough, but it was a long-delayed dinner which was the object of their enthusiasm.

Towne Expects to Decline

The national committees of the silver republicans and the populists will get together within the next month and decide what they will do about Stevenson. In the meantime Mr. Towne will probably decline and thus leave the way open for these democratic allies to swallow the democratic ticket.

Silver Republicans Disappointed

The silver republicans are bitterly disappointed over the results. Mr. Towne this afternoon declined a nomination from the silver republican convention. He also received the formal notification of his nomination for second place on the populist ticket, and delayed his answer. The understanding is that he will decline it, and the populists will then be expected to put Stevenson's name on the ticket. They will probably make considerable of a protest over the way in which their candidate was treated.

No Hope of Success.

Every effort has been put forth by the leader to harmonize the party, not at all for the purpose of securing success this year, but merely as a foundation for real work in 1904. They take it for granted that McKinley and Roosevelt will be elected.

The nomination of Stevenson destroyed the last hope of counteracting the enthusiasm over the election of the Rough Rider on the republican ticket.

Prepared Grave For Free Silver.

The results of the convention here in Kansas City, according to the party leaders, are eminently satisfactory. They have nominated Bryan, they say, and have prepared a grave for him and for free silver.

The agreement on the platform has united the party to an extraordinary degree, and hence it is believed there is a fair chance of success in 1904.

Figures on 1904 Tickets

Among the forecasters who expect to see a democratic defeat this year, followed by success four years later, there seems to be a general belief that Hill occupies the point of vantage for nomination for first place on the ticket four years from now.

These democrats look to see him pitted against Roosevelt at that time, and practically all the work done here has been on that basis.

Senator Jones has been reelected chairman of the democratic national committee, and he may manage the campaign in such a way as will hold the party together until after election time, when Mr. Bryan will be notified that he is no longer a power in the party councils, but must step aside for other men and other issues.

IT IS FEARED THAT BOTH ARE DEAD

Rev. Arthur H. and Mrs. Emma Dickinson-Smith at Peking—Well Known Here.

New York, July 7.—[Special Telegram]—Rev. Dr. Oregon, New York representative of the American board, has prepared a list of the Congregational church missionaries in the "Peking" district. Among them are Rev. Arthur H. and Mrs. Emma Dickinson-Smith, the latter was born in Janesville in 1849, and educated at Beloit college.

Mrs. Emma Dickinson-Smith, reported among those dead at Peking, China, is a cousin of E. J. Dickinson of Rock Prairie and is well known in this city. She was a graduate of Rockford Seminary, and her husband, Arthur Smith, is a graduate of Beloit college. Mr. and Mrs. Smith visited in this city, where they have many warm friends, about five years ago, while on a trip to this country from China where they have resided for the last thirty years.

Mr. Smith was a very able man and the author of several books on Chinese life and customs, the most outpoken being "Chinese Characteristics" and "Village Life in China." The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be pained to hear of their death, a special dispatch to that effect having been received by The Gazette this afternoon.

TOWNE DECLINES TO ACCEPT IT

Refuses to be a Candidate for Either Silver Republicans or Populists, Gold Democrats Plan.

Kansas City, July 6.—The national silver republican convention by a practically unanimous vote referred the vice presidential nomination to the national committee with plenary powers and at 5:22 p. m. the convention adjourned sine die.

The decision not to nominate a candidate for vice president was made at the urgent solicitation of Charles A. Towne whom the convention desired to nominate by acclamation. Mr. Towne begged the convention not to do so, and said its only hope for success was to support Bryan and Stevenson. Inasmuch as Mr. Towne declared it was his intention to support the nominees of the democratic convention, it is believed he will decline the populist nomination for the vice presidency.

Record in Submarine Diving.

Edward Hooper, a professional diver, has made a record in his line of business. Off the coast of South Africa he descended to the wreck of the ship Cape Horn, and there remained, at one submergence, for forty-two minutes at a depth of over 200 feet. At this point the pressure is eighty-eight and one-half pounds to the square inch and no other person, it is asserted, has been able to remain below this depth.

Landmark Disappears.

Willard's hotel has been torn down, and the Virginia hotel, a modern million dollar structure, is being erected in its place. Willard's has been one of the landmarks of Washington, and half a century ago, like the Astor house of New York, was numbered among the greatest hotels of the world.

REGRET ACTION OF MR. SPOONER

Friends of the Wisconsin Senator Hope He Will Reconsider.

HIS MOTIVE SINCERE

Effect on Political Conditions in the Badger State Causing Speculation.

DISLIKES POLITICAL STRIFE

Milwaukee, Wis., July 7.—It is many years since there has been an event in Wisconsin politics which has created as much excitement among the politicians as the announcement of Senator J. C. Spooner that he will not stand for reelection to the senate and the intimation that he may resign before his term expires.

There have been all sorts of conjectures today as to the reasons which impelled Senator Spooner to make this announcement two years before his term expires. Many of his friends could not believe that he was sincere in the matter but private assurances confirm the public announcement.

Among the wing of the republican party, which of late has come to be known as the stalwarts, it was said that the reason of his sudden announcement is that Senator Spooner dislikes a political fight and that he sees in the ascendancy of La Follette a fight ahead if he wishes to retain his seat.

Others claim he will retire from the senate to go into the cabinet of President McKinley after the election, and others again claim that he may be putting himself in shape for the presidential campaign of 1904 and that he may wish to be a candidate for president at that time.

States the True Reason.

Senator Spooner states the true reason in his letter to the republicans of the state in which he says that his duty to his family makes it imperative on him not to be a candidate. Senator Spooner never did care for Washington life, and lately has been ailing, and it was feared for a time was threatened with a serious malady.

During the most exacting time of the last session she was compelled to leave Washington and go to their home at Madison. Two or three times the senator was greatly worried because of the news which he received from his wife. Even before Mrs. Spooner had taken sick he promised her he would not be a candidate again, and he told Senator Quarles and other of his friends but he did not think he was serious in his determination. He also told them it was not improbable that he would not serve out his present term.

Talk of His Successor

The announcement of his retirement has already caused the politicians to speculate on his successor. In the bunch of eligible candidates who are already coming out Congressman Babcock looms up strong. Mr. Babcock was the first of the politicians of the state who recognized La Follette's strength in the campaign, and as a consequence it is believed that many of the old time La Follette men have a kindly feeling toward him.

All of the La Follette men, however, deny that there is a deal with Babcock but claim he will have to stand in the fight as in the last contest.

Edgar W. Coleman of Der Herold, an opponent of La Follette suggests that ex-Governor Hoard may be the senator. The ex-Governor, however, would not be a candidate in the last contest, and there is no reason to believe that he will enter this one.

On the other hand S. A. Cook of Neenah and Judge Webb may both be in the fight. There has been some suggestion of La Follette, but he is barred because of his announcement that he would not be a candidate. There is general regret at the retirement of Senator Spooner.

Cable Statistics.

The cost of constructing a cable system is about $2,000 per mile, and the total amount invested in submarine lines at present is upward of $200,000,000. The value of the land line is, of course, much greater in the aggregate. The largest company in America has alone a capital of $125,000,000, pays out yearly between $8,000,000 and $10,000,000 salaries, and last year carried over 60,000,000 messages. These figures are inadequate, but they serve to show that telegraphs form one of the world's greatest business interests.

OFF FOR PORTO RICO.

Palatial Yacht Mayflower to Serve For Governor Allen.

MAGNIFICENTLY FITTED OUT.

Luxurious Furniture, Costly Hangings, Plate Glass and White and Gold Decorations—Mansions Organ and Piano—Room Beautifully Finished in Mahogany For Governor Allen's Bicycle.

Fitted out as if it were the floating palace of a prince, the government's yacht, the Mayflower, left for San Juan, Porto Rico, the other day. On her arrival there she will be placed at the personal disposal of Charles H. Allen, governor of Porto Rico, says the New York Herald. The White House does not compare in luxury with this yacht.

In the construction of the Mayflower the late Ogden Goellet reached the pinnacle of luxury. After Mr. Goellet's

GOVERNOR CHARLES H. ALLEN.

Death the heirs sold the Mayflower to the government for less than half a million dollars. She was converted into a torpedo boat destroyer and attached to Admiral Sampson's squadron. Governor Allen will receive the Mayflower in her old form. Warlike equipments have been removed, and handsome decorations are again in place.

Charles H. Allen, the governor of Porto Rico, is a Massachusetts business man, manufacturer of a wood preservative, head of a paper mill, president of a bank and incidentally an active politician.

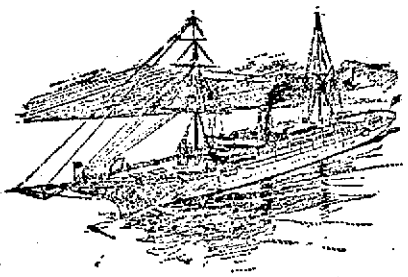

On the Mayflower he has a stateroom with the most costly and elegant fittings. The carving on the panels is of a Grecian character, the walls and ceiling are finished in pure enamel white and filled in with figured silk. The furniture is of polished rosewood of antique design. There are electric fans, an electric stove and an open fireplace.

Attached to this room is his private bedroom, decorated in Louis XVI style. The canopy bed is curtained with hangings that cost thousands. There are Syrian rugs and Persian carpets. Next to this is a tiled bathroom with a marble bathtub. Attached to the same suite is a boudoir and adjoining are fine accommodations for both valet and lady's maid.

In the officers' cabin is a steel safe; in the drawing room are a handsome large organ and a piano. The costly woodwork is finished in white and gold. There are marble mantels, and the walls are hung with rich crimson satin damask. The woodwork of the armchairs is white and gold and the upholstery crimson. There are inlaid card and writing tables.

Aft of the training room is the library, with carved oak fittings and 2,000 books in expensive bindings. The cases are lined with green silk. The leather armchairs cost $500 apiece. Mr. Allen will eat his meals in the finest dining room ever built in a yacht. The finest china and the most costly cut glass are used. The saloon is fitted with softest electric lamps and carpeted with the finest rugs to be bought in Persia.

Governor Allen may receive his friends in a marble reception hall floored with the best French plate glass set in solid brass and cement. This transparent floor will enable the visitors to see the engines in operation without detecting the odor of the oil and grease. Besides all this, the yacht is provided with eight staterooms, each with tiled bathroom and rosewood furniture. There is a room, beautifully finished in mahogany, for Governor Allen's bicycle.

As the beautiful brigantine rigged twin screw yacht steamed out of the navy yard she saluted the admiral's flag with 13 guns and received in return a salute of seven guns.

New Device.

Small change can be easily picked up from a newly designed counter tray, which has a concave bowl, provided with a lip on one side, into which the change is drawn by the fingers, the curvature of the lip allowing two sides of the coin to be engaged by the thumb and finger.

England no longer furnishes the largest contingent of tourists in Switzerland. The Germans and French both surpass the English in numbers.

Prize Logbook Landed, by Fisherman.

It was an odd catch that Henry Johnson, a fisherman of Concord, N. H., made the other day. In pulling in his lobster traps he brought up a book, the log of the cruiser Detroit, which was lost when that vessel was docked for repairs a few weeks ago, says the New York Press. The book was prized highly, as about 150 pages of the volume are filled with records covering doings of the cruiser since the close of the Spanish war.

Lowell's New Poem.

A new poem by James Russell Lowell is a novelty in magazine literature. A few months ago The Century printed his lines on Shakespeare and in its June number will appear an unpublished poem in a lighter mood entitled "Three Scenes in the Life of a Portrait." It is in a gay and witty vein and was written in Madrid during his stay as minister and was addressed to a Spanish lady to whom he gave his portrait.

STORM LAST NIGHT WAS A CORKER

TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH LINES SUFFER MOST.

Toll Lines Are Down in All Directions
Many Fine Shade Trees in This City Broken Down—Farmers Suffer in the Destruction of Sheds and Barns.

The storm that struck Janesville and the surrounding country last night was a corker. The first indications of a bad storm appeared in the west and southwest about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon and seemed to be going north of the city, later the wind changed driving it down over the city causing people to look for safe hiding places in the cellars.

The worst of the storm struck about seven o'clock and for a few minutes it looked like there would be a general crash. The worst of the blow passed over and later it commenced again from the southwest and blew fiercely for several hours.

The worst sufferers in the city were the telephone telegraph companies, the city fire alarm and the electric light company.

The electric light company had several wires broken or connections cut putting out a large number of lights on both sides of the river. The loss of the lights together with the blackness of the storm tended to increase the alarm already felt by the timid people.

The telephone companies suffered considerable damage from crossed and broken wires, in some places the wires being twisted into a cable. This morning Manager Slater of the Wisconsin Company said that at one time they had but fifty phones in working order.

The toll lines were down in all directions, the company were unable to get connections with Beloit, Rockford, Evansville and Milwaukee. They have a large force of men at work repairing the damage and will get the phones in order as soon as possible. So if you cannot get the person you want at once don't get angry as they are doing all they possibly can to repair the damage.

Many fine shade trees in all parts of the city were blown down or broken. Signs were blown from their fastenings and several buildings and shingles torn from the roofs.

At the power house of Janesville Street Railway Company eight lengths of the large iron stack over the boiler room were torn off.

Part of the roof of the C. & N. W. R. R. round house was blown off.

Reports to the surrounding country showing that great damage was done at different points.

On the Dooley farm toward Evansville a large barn was demolished and a number of head of horses and cattle killed.

A windmill was blown down on the Fellows place on the Madison road.

On the farm of P. Kennecane in the town of La Prairie the windmill was blown down and part of the barn demolished, killing a valuable mare.

Mr. Cary, on the old Griswold farm toward Johnston, had a valuable horse killed by lightning.

J. W. Hogan had a windmill blown down.

The large barn on the farm of Mrs. C. A. Downing, west of the city, was blown down.

From all parts of the county come reports of windmills, fences, barns and sheds being blown down and cattle killed by lightning.

The storm was not confined to this part of the state alone, as reports of a severe storm north of us toward Fond du Lac, Oshkosh, Appleton, and other places in the northern part of the state are being received.

The Storm at Beloit.

Beloit, Wis., July 7.—[Special]—A most awful wind and rain storm struck this city last evening between the hours of 6 and 7. A number of very large trees were blown down and the residence of Mr. Crouse on South Bridge street was struck by lightning, causing quite a little damage. The storm lasted about three quarters of an hour.

Injured Chopping Wood.

Frank Zimmerman, a cripple about seventeen years of age, residing with his mother at 410 South Jackson street was badly injured yesterday afternoon while chopping wood at his mother's home. He raised the axe he was using to strike a blow when in some manner he caught it in a clothes line, bringing the blade down on his head, inflicting a wound about three inches long. The cut is quite a serious one. Dr. E. P. Woods expects to bring the young man out all right, although he may be laid up for some days.

Curious Effect of Lyddite.

The vapor given off by lyddite when it explodes has an extraordinary effect on the hair and face. When the British troops took possession of Cronje's laager, the Boer children, of whom there were about twenty-two, presented a curious appearance. Through the effects of lyddite their hair and faces had become quite yellow.

An Explanation.

"Is Mr. Mangier a salt water sailor? There's something so suggestive of the brine about him."
"I guess it's 'cause he's corned so often."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Restful Old Age.

"Isn't your grandfather's clock going, Miss Penelope?"
"No, indeed. I'd be ashamed to make an old clock like that work."—Chicago Record.

JANESVILLE Carriage Works had a close call for a fire last evening. John Heller, an employee of the firm, detected the smell of smoke in the building, but at first could not locate the fire; finally after searching for some time he discovered it in a box of old rags, where it had made considerable headway. It was extinguished before any damage was done.

A certain fond mother of Memphis is worrying herself over an incident which occurred a few days since. She is trying to decide whether her 4-year-old son, who figured so prominently in the incident, made a display of deep penitence or whether he worked a "con" game on her. Some time ago the boy in the case was presented with a toy hammer, which he appreciated very much. He appeared before his mother about 30 minutes after receiving the hammer, wearing a woe-begone expression.

"Mamma," he said, "I feel awful bad."

"Why, what is the matter, my son?" asked his mother.

"I feel bad right here, mamma," the lad answered, putting his hand on his heart.

"Well, tell mamma what it is, son."

"I feel like I do when you are going to whip me." He was whimpering by now, and his mother was so sorry for him that the tears were welling up into her eyes.

"What have you done, darling?"

"I've hammered a hole in your head-stand," he said and burst into tears.

He was not whipped, but his mother is wondering whether he will be a preacher or a "wise gazabo."—Memphis Scimitar.

NEW TRESTLE IS ABOUT COMPLETED

LOOKS LIKE AN IMMENSE SPIDER
WEB ACROSS THE RIVER.

Excavation for the Cut Under the Northwestern Tracks Has Already Commenced—Largest Steam Shovel Ever Used Now in Operation on the Janesville & Southeastern.

The new trestle being built by the Janesville & Southeastern railway from Snipe hill to the south end of the C. & N. W. R. R. bridge is about completed. The pile driver had reached the south bank of the river yesterday afternoon and a few more spans will bring the work to where the excavation under the N. W. tracks will begin.

The new trestle looks like an immense spider web stretching across the river to Snipe hill and seems hardly strong enough to bear the immense strain that will be put upon it, although there is no question but it will be.

Excavations for the cut under the C. & N. W. tracks has already begun and a large opening has been made in the quarry south of Center avenue on the right of way. This is one of the hardest cuts on the entire line, being through solid stone almost the entire distance. When completed and track connections made with the new trestle work the work of filling across the flat will proceed much more rapidly.

Most of the earth to make the fill on the line of the new trestle will be taken from Snipe hill. The largest steam shovel ever used in southern Wisconsin is now being set up by the railroad company near Snipe hill, it being able to take up five cubic yards of earth at a time. Filling cars with a shovel of that size is pretty lively work and is quite an improvement over the hand shovel.

LIEUT. CALDWELL INSPECTS CO. I.

First Lieutenant F. M. Caldwell of the Seventh United States Cavalry inspected Co. I. W. N. G. last evening, only six members being absent at roll call. Lieut. Caldwell put this company through a severe drill, and although he made no comments he seemed satisfied with the showing made by them, which was very good for a company so lately organized. The rank of the company will not be known until Lieut. Caldwell makes his report.

CANNON CRACKER GOT IN ITS WORK

A dynamite cracker got in its work yesterday afternoon on Peter Riley a delivery clerk in the employ of Tarrant & Osgood. As a consequence of trying to raise a young man that was riding with him in the delivery wagon he had the palm of his hand badly torn and burned. Mr. Riley attempted to place the cracker under the seat of the wagon to scare the young man riding with him, but before he had it properly located, it exploded, injuring him badly. In the future Mr. Riley intends letting out all contracts in the practical joke line.

Grocerymen Hold a Meeting.

The Janesville grocerymen hold a meeting last evening at the Wholesale Grocery Co.'s store. Nothing definite was done in regard to holding their annual picnic. Rates were secured to several resorts. The committee wanted more time to investigate further and the meeting was adjourned until Tuesday evening.

The Strain They Suffered.

For exercise in expression the teacher daily asks her scholars to describe some of the happenings of the day at home.

Little Minnie, loquutor: "When my papa went to go down into the woodshed the other evening, where it was dark, he slipped on the stair and strained his foot, and now he can't walk."

Here another little girl was evidently reminded of something, and she raised her hand and fluttered it to get the teacher's attention.

"Well," suggested the teacher. "Please, mamma, when our cow came home from pasture last night she slipped in the mud right in front of the house and strained her milk, but she is able to walk just the same."—Lewiston Journal.

Point of View.

The beautiful Griselda deprecated his passionate praise.

"I am but a worm," after all," she sighed, the traditions of her Puritan ancestry being strong upon her.

"But you look nice enough to eat!" protested the youth.

"Oh, you're a bird!" the shy girl faltered, as if to indicate that she deemed his attitude of mind largely a matter of point of view.—Detroit Journal.

Suspicious Approval.

He—Why don't you wear your new bonnet, my dear?
She—Oh, there's something wrong with it, and I can't find out what it is.

He—Then how do you know there is something wrong with it?

She—All the women in the neighborhood say it is just too lovely for anything.—Chicago News.

Kind words are benedictions. They are not only instruments of power, but of benevolence and courtesy, blessings both to the speaker and hearer of them.—Frederick Saunders.

Think evening we will be prepared to serve Neapolitan ice cream. It's in brick form and is delicious. Frank George, 111 West Milwaukee street.

Marriage Performed Free. In a fashionable church on Fifth avenue, New York, marriages are performed free if desired, and an announcement is made to that effect. "If a clerk comes here to be married," says the pastor, "and insists on having an organ wedding march it means $25; if he wants the choir it means more; if he wants flowers, ribbons and special ushers it means a great deal more. But if he comes here and says, 'want to get married,' and dispenses with all these things it costs him nothing."

Stumped the School Visitor. A visitor at a Columbia, Mo., school the other day, asked one of the lower grade class this question: "What is the axis of the earth?" "An imaginary line passing from one pole to the other, on which the earth revolves," proudly answered a pupil. "Yes," said the examiner, well pleased, "and could you hang a bonnet on it?" "Yes, sir." "Indeed! And what kind of a bonnet?" "An imaginary bonnet, sir." The visitor asked no more questions.

RUSH BEARDSLY DEAD

Old Settler and Respected Citizen of Johnstown Died Yesterday
Afternoon Aged 75.

Rush Beardsly, an old and respected resident of Johnstown, died at his home in that place yesterday afternoon aged 74 years, locomotor ataxia, with which he has suffered for the last two years, being the cause of his death. Mr. Beardsly was one of the early settlers in Rock county, having settled at Johnstown about 1850. He was prominent in all town affairs and was chairman of the town board for a number of years and was highly respected by all residents of the county. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. James Hight, who have the sympathy of a large circle of friends. He also left one brother, a chaplain in the U. S. navy, and a sister residing at Omaha, Nebraska. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the family residence at Johnstown. The services will be conducted by Rev. S. G. Huey. Interment will be at the Johnstown cemetery.

Mrs. C. W. Brooks

Mrs. C. W. Brooks was born in England on February 11, 1852. When only eight years of age she came to America with her parents. She was married November 30, 1876. When a girl she was a member of the Baptist church. For some time she sang in a Methodist choir, and in later years her preference had been for that church. She was a charter member of the Royal Neighbors, a local body of which order followed her remains to the grave. She left this scene of strife, this world of storms, on the morning of July 4. Strongest words of praise are spoken by those who knew her best. She was invariably kind, and always cheerful. She endeavored to carry out the noble Christ spirit, of helping someone else. Her life was sunlit. Her death brings gloom. May heaven's own help and healing be for the bereaved.

Lewis Ellithor.

Mr. Lewis Ellithor, father of Mrs. George A. Lanphier of this city, died at his home in Milton Junction, Wis., yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Mr. Ellithor was 83 years old last May and has been a resident of the county for a long time. His many friends will be pained to hear of his taking away. Funeral arrangements will be given later.

Mrs. William Payne.

The funeral of the late Mrs. William Payne will be held from the residence of Mrs. Marion P. Leavitt, 208 North Jackson street, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the Rev. A. O. Kempton, pastor of the Baptist church officiating. The interment will be at Oak Hill cemetery.

Lizzie Siebert.

William Siebert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Siebert, died at the home of her parents, on Pearl street, this morning after a brief illness with peritonitis. The deceased child was thirteen years of age and had many loving friends among her playmates. The parents will have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Excursion to Kilbourn City and the Dells of Wisconsin.

On Tuesday, July 24th the C. M. & St. P. Ry will run a special train to Kilbourn and return, leaving Janesville at 7:30 a. m., arriving Kilbourn 10:40 a. m., returning leave Kilbourn at 6:30 p. m. Only $2 for the round trip, including trip on steamer up the river and through the Dells.

TORNADO DESTROYS VILLAGE

Steamboat Rock, Iowa, Reported Wiped Out.

HEAVIEST STORM OF SEASON.

Storms in Other Western Towns—Man at Fargo, Wis., Struck by Lightning—Great Damage to Crops—Losses to Stock and Buildings.

Marshalltown, Ia., July 7.—Report reaches here that a tornado and cloudburst destroyed the village of Steamboat Rock. The report is partly verified by the fact that the Iowa river has risen five feet here within an hour. A cloudburst between St. Anthony and Zealring, twenty-two miles west of this city, washed out nearly a mile of track on the Story City branch of the Iowa Central railroad and caused great damage to crops. The heaviest storm of the season struck this city.

Elroy, Wis., July 7.—A terrific rain and hail storm, accompanied by a high wind, passed over this city. Hail stones were picked up which measured twelve inches in circumference and weighed over eight ounces. Corn was whipped to pieces and small grains were cut to pieces and buried. The Baraboo river is rising and a flood is threatened.

Berlin, Wis., July 7.—About the worst rain and wind storm Berlin ever had passed over the city. Many roofs were blown off, including Wright's mill, Truesdell's tannery and the grand stand at the fair grounds. Several business blocks in Huron street and Broadway also lost roofs, and the entire front of the Owen livery was blown out. Jim Quaddy and a companion, who were taking shelter under the grand stand at the fair grounds, were badly injured. Mike Decker of Fargo, Wis., was killed by lightning.

Oshkosh, Wis., July 7.—A rain, hail and windstorm that caused a drop of 22 degrees in about that number of minutes and caused thousands of dollars' damage to crops and property, struck here. In the city smokestacks were blown down at the factory of the Morgan company, the Conlee company, the Wakefield mills and the Oshkosh Furniture company. A. Stretch & Bros.' factory was unroofed. A portion of the city hall cupola was blown away. Ament's circus tent was blown down and one man seriously hurt.

Cedar Falls, Iowa, July 7.—A heavy wind and rain storm damaged the small grain this afternoon, laying it flat on the ground.

Waukau, Wis., July 7.—The southwestern part of Winnebago county, particularly the townships of Nepesun and Utica, was visited by a tornado lasting thirty minutes. The large new barn of Morrissey brothers was leveled to the ground and Lawrence Morrissey, one of the owners, was hurled through the air 100 feet, sustaining serious injuries. Barns of Henry Henshaw, W. K. Scribner and J. L. Flannigan were completely wrecked. John and Joseph Deyoe are missing. Losses on the stock will amount to thousands of dollars.

SIX PERSONS ARE INJURED.

Roof Over Pittsburgh Union Station Entrance Collapses.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 6.—The roof over the covered walk at the western entrance to the union station collapsed at 9:45 and injured six persons. The framework for a distance of 125 feet fell on the pavement and completely buried the Fort Wayne and Pittsburgh & Birmingham traction tracks.

The accident occurred just as the passengers who had come to the city on the Cincinnati and Cleveland express from the east, were leaving the

Plenty of Proof Right Here in Janesville.

Claim is one thing; proof another. Columbus claimed the world was round.

Did people believe it? Not until he proved it.

Unproven claims have made the people skeptics.

Every claim made for the "Little Conqueror" is proven.

Proven in Janesville by local experience.

Here is one case from the many we have.

Mrs. N. J. Casey, of 103 Prairie Ave., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills proved better than any other medicines I took for my kidneys. These organs troubled me off and on for some years. Backache was the chief symptom and often caused me to suffer severely. I tried a number of remedies but continued to grow worse instead of better. I was finally persuaded to try Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box at the Peoples' Drug Co's. store. I only took them a few days when I felt better. Should there be any recurrence of my trouble I now know what to use."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

On Fire Is Still Burning.
New York, July 7.—The fire at the Standard Oil company's works at Constance Hook, Bayonne, N. J., was still burning this morning. The fire department of Bayonne and the fire-fighting force of the Standard Oil company kept up their struggle against the flames during the night, but their efforts, so far as saving burning property goes, were of little avail. About 3:15 this morning another tank exploded with a loud roar, and the naphtha which it contained spread in all directions.

Cuban Postal Report.
Washington, July 7.—The completion of the report of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow on the Cuban postal scandal will be delayed several days, as it has been discovered that certain transcripts of Cuban postal records were missing. These records were left in Cuba. Mr. Bristow called for them yesterday.

Fighting for Boer Cattle.
Pretoria, July 7.—The pan-tribal fight, in which 1,500 natives are engaged, is going on north of the Boers' position for the possession of the Boers' cattle.

Kansas City, Mo., July 7.—Chicago will continue to be the headquarters of the democratic national committee, and the national campaign will be directed from that city. The offices, however, probably will be removed from the Union building, and J. G. Johnson, who for more than a year has been chairman of the executive committee, and who in all probability will continue to head that committee, will begin to look for more space as soon as he reaches Chicago.

The national committee met in the afternoon and unanimously re-elected Senator J. K. Jones of Arkansas chairman; Charles A. Walsh of Iowa, secretary; W. J. Stone of Missouri, vice-chairman, and Col. John I. Martin of St. Louis, sergeant-at-arms. The committee authorized Chairman Jones to name the sub-committees and appoint the treasurer and subordinate officials. This makes it almost certain that M. F. Dunlap of Jacksonville, Ill., will continue as treasurer, Willis J. Abbott as manager of the press bureau and W. H. Hinrichsen of Jacksonville as traveling manager of the ways and means committee. Senator Jones would not give any information as to whom he will appoint on the executive committee.

O'Donnell Easy for Maher.
New York, July 7.—Peter Maher defeated Steve O'Donnell the Australian, in the first round of what was scheduled to be a twenty-five-round bout at the Broadway Athletic club. A small crowd was in attendance and there was practically no betting on the result, as Maher was looked upon as a sure winner. The bout lasted only one minute and forty-eight seconds. In that time O'Donnell was knocked down three times.

Shoots Her Former Lover.
West Superior, Wis., July 7.—In sight of her mother's grave Ada Arlington shot and killed her former lover, John Resburg, at New St. Louis, a few miles from this city. She then carried him into her house, crossed his hands on his breast, placed nickels on his eyes and sat up all night with the dead body. She came to the city and gave herself up.

She states that the man was intoxicated and tried to break into her house.

To Command at Norfolk.

Washington, July 7.—Rear Admiral Cotton has been designated as commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, vice Rear Admiral Barker.

Dr. Rogers Accepts the Call.
Evanston, Ill., July 7.—Dr. Henry Wade Rogers, whose resignation from the presidency of Northwestern university will go into effect July 15, has accepted a call from the trustees of Yale university to take the place of the late E. J. Phelps as instructor in the law department.

Roosevelt Goes to See Hanna.
Cleveland, O., July 7.—Gov. Roosevelt arrived here early today via the Lake Shore road from the west. He was met at the station by Elmer Dover, Senator Hanna's private secretary. The governor entered a carriage and was driven directly to the Hanna residence, where he spent the morning in conference with the national chairman.

This afternoon Gov. Roosevelt and Senator Hanna went to Canton to visit the president.

Negro Lynched in Georgia.
Albany, Ga., July 7.—John Roe, an 18-year-old negro, was lynched near Columbus, Ala., for an attempted as-

Becoming a Mother

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing can compare with the horrors of childbirth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipation of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom that cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of MORRIS' FRIEND during pregnancy, through the perils of childbirth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at 60c per bottle. Send for free booklet to THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Atlanta, Georgia.

Mother's Friend

POND'S EXTRACT

Used over half a century. Refreshing and invigorating, for the toilet or after shaving. Immediate relief to eyes irritated by wind or dust. As a Remedy, it controls pain, bleeding and inflammation.

Used Internally and Externally

CAUTION.—Witch Hazel is NOT Pond's Extract, and cannot be used for it. Ordinary Witch Hazel is sold in bulk, diluted, easily turns sour, and generally contains "wood alcohol," which is an irritant externally and, taken internally, is a deadly poison. Pond's extract is sold ONLY in SEALED bottles enclosed in buff wrapper.

Pond's Extract Co., 75, Fifth Ave., New York.
POND'S EXTRACT OINTMENT cures itching or bleeding piles, however severe. It is specific in all skin diseases.

THE MAN OF THE HOUR

A Magnificent Portrait of

PRESIDENT

McKINLEY

Reproduced in Ten Colors from a Late Photograph, for which the President specially sat, at the request of the Publishers. . . . (SIZE 14 x 21 INCHES.)

It has been printed for us on heavy plate-paper, in a form suitable for framing, by one of the largest art lithograph houses in America, in the famous French style of color-plate work. Every American family will want one of these handsome pictures of the President. It must be remembered that this picture is in no sense a cheap chromo, but is an example of the very highest style of illuminated printing. It will be an ornament to any library or drawing-room. Our readers can have the McKinley portrait at what it costs us (namely, ten cents per copy) by merely filling out the coupon below, and sending it to this office at once. There will be such a demand for this portrait, that we advise sending orders at once. As many copies as may be desired can be had on one coupon, providing ten cents is sent for each copy. Write name and address plainly, and remit in coin or postage stamps.

"Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. C. N. Anderson, of Rockbridge Baths, Rockbridge Co., Va., "is a God-send to weak and sickly women, restoring health without subjecting their nerves to the shock of an examination."

"I was all run down in health—could not work, nervous at times that I could not even write; had a very poor appetite. I decided to write to Dr. Pierce and state my case. I received a favorable reply, and commenced taking the 'Favorite Prescription' and 'Pellets.' Took six bottles of 'Favorite Prescription,' one of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and one of 'Pellets.' I can now work as well as I could before I was taken sick. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world for sick and nervous women."

Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are specially adapted to the use of delicate women. Easy to take, gentle in action.

Instruction to Caucus Officers

The caucuses should be held at the place mentioned in the call unless for any reason it is impossible to hold at that place, in which case it may be adjourned to some other convenient place, and in case of such adjournment a person should be stationed at the place mentioned in the notice, to notify electors of the adjournment.

TIME. The caucuses should be opened at the time mentioned in the call and remain open for the period of time specified in such call.

TAKING OFF. The chairman of the caucuses shall be the chairman of the town committee. In his absence the chairman may be chosen by the electors present at the opening of the caucuses. The secretary and tellers shall be chosen by the electors present at the opening of the caucuses. The chairman and secretary shall act as the inspectors and shall take the oath here-with enclosed. For the purpose of administering this oath it will be necessary to have a notary public or a justice of the peace present at the opening of the caucuses.

VOTING. All voting shall be by ballot, which ballot shall be printed on plain, white paper, or may be written by the individual voter and shall be deposited by said voter in a box or other receptacle which receptacle shall be in full view of the chairman, secretary and tellers and shall not be moved during the caucuses. When more than one set of delegates are to be elected a separate box or receptacle should be furnished for each set.

The secretary of the caucuses shall make a true and correct poll list of the voters who cast a ballot at such caucuses giving the name and in cities the residence, street and number.

In cities, only the voters whose names appear on the registry list shall be allowed to vote except it is shown by affidavit that the elector is a qualified voter and resident of the caucuses district, which affidavit must be corroborated by at least two freeholders.

Immediately after the close of the caucuses and the canvass of the votes the chairman and secretary of the caucuses shall certify to the chairman of the county committee the names of the delegates chosen at the caucuses, giving the vote of the several candidates; and the persons receiving the most votes shall be legally elected as such delegates. The committee having charge of the caucuses shall have authority to maintain order and enforce obedience to the lawful rules during the caucuses.

In the towns in the First and Second assembly districts there are five sets of delegates to be elected, to-wit:

1. Delegates to the Assembly Convention to elect delegates to the State Convention.
2. To the Superintendent District Convention.
3. To the County Convention.
4. To the Assembly Convention.
5. To the Senatorial Convention.

In the towns in the Third Assembly District there are delegates to be elected to the same conventions except the senatorial convention. At the caucuses in cities delegates to only the Assembly Convention to elect delegates to the State Convention and to the Superintendent District Convention are to be elected.

Herewith enclosed please find a return, which should be executed and attached to the list of the delegates to the various conventions and then returned to Thomas S. Nolan, chairman of the Rock County Republican Committee, Janesville, Wisconsin.
